Finding the Lord in the Temple

DECEMBER 29, 2019

Finding the Lord in the Temple marks the final public appearance of Jesus from the time He was twelve until He reached thirty. Jesus is visiting the temple. He is the high priest. He is The Passover Lamb. And he is the Teacher-Prophet. He is the Son of God.

First, it tells us that God tries those He loves. The mystery of the Finding in the Temple should teach us is that God's ways are not our ways.

Secondly, God has a purpose in everything He does. God's purpose is not to see us suffer. His purpose is always good, and His designs are always just;

Thirdly, the deepest understanding of our faith will not come from books. It will come from experience and prayer. One of the striking features of Mary's life, as told especially by the Evangelist Saint Luke, is the frequent entrance of God into her life

Bible Verse

“Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father’s house?”

LUKE 2:48

Psalm 148

Alleluia! Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise him in the heights!

Praise him, all his angels; praise him, all his host!

Praise him, sun and moon; praise him, all you shining stars!

Let them praise the name of the LORD, for he commanded and they were created.

Praise the LORD from the earth, mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars!

Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of the earth!

Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted.

And the glory of the LORD is above earth and heaven. Alleluia!

From the Letter of Saint Paul to the Colossians 1:9-19

we do not cease praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding to live in a manner worthy of the Lord, so as to be fully pleasing, in every good work bearing fruit and growing in the knowledge of God, strengthened with every power, in accord with his glorious might.

For He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

From the Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke 2:41-52

Now every year his parents went to Jerusalem for the festival of the Passover. And when he was twelve years old, they went up as usual for the festival. When the festival was ended and they started to return, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Assuming that he was in the group of travelers, they went a day's journey. Then they started to look for him among their relatives and friends. When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. And all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him they were astonished; and his mother said to him, "Child, why have you treated us like this? Look, your father and I have been searching for you in great anxiety." He said to them, "Why were you searching for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. Then he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them. His mother treasured all these things in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and in years, and in divine and human favor.
