Entrance into Great Lent
The wedding at Cana
FEBRUARY 23, 2019

Jesus had been invited to the wedding together with His mother and disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus intervened or interceded.

Jesus addresses his mother by the term “Woman,” presenting her as the “New Eve” who acts in harmony with God’s will: The woman in the Garden of Eden led Adam to the first sin but the woman at Cana leads the new Adam to his first glorious work.

The water used for the Jewish purification rites is now no longer sufficient to satisfy the thirst of those seeking the fullest possible communion with God.

This occurred on the “third day” foreshadowing of His glorification, when He is raised from the dead on “the third day.” When the new wine offered in thanksgiving and praise of the Lord will become the Blood of Christ that we receive in the Eucharist.

We pray for all the sick in our Parish

“Heal me, O Lord, and I will be healed;
save me and I will be saved,
for you are the one I praise”

Jeremiah 17:14

Revelation 19

Salvation, glory, and might belong to our God,
For true and just are his judgments.

Praise our God, all you his servants,
And you who revere him, both small and great.
Alleluia! The Lord God has established his reign.

Let us rejoice, be glad and give him glory.

For the wedding of the Lamb has come,
And his bride has made herself ready.

Fine linen, bright and pure, was given her to wear.

Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding feast of the Lamb! Alleluia

From the Letter of Saint Paul to Romans 14:14-23

The kingdom of God is not a matter of food and drink, but of righteousness, peace, and joy in the holy Spirit; whoever serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by others. Let us then pursue what leads to peace and to building up one another. For the sake of food, do not destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for anyone to become a stumbling block by eating; it is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble. Keep the faith that you have to yourself in the presence of God; blessed is the one who does not condemn himself for what he approves. But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because this is not from faith; for whatever is not from faith is sin.

The Gospel of John 2:1-11 (The miracle at the wedding in Cana of Galilee)

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." (And) Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from (although the servers who had drawn the water knew), the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now."
