SEASON OF PENTECOST SEASON

The Spirit Teaches Body and Blood of Christ

June 23, 2019

In consuming the Eucharist, “we are filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory is given to us.” The Eucharist is often referred to as the “source and summit of the Church.” In receiving this “sacrament of sacraments,” our Savior comes not simply to meet us but into us, fills us with Himself, and sanctifies us with His own supernatural, divine life in order to transform us into His likeness.

The early Church Fathers unanimously taught that the Eucharist was not a symbol at all but the Real Presence of Christ, because the Eucharist truly is the life-blood of the Christian, for, without it, we have no life within us.

Praise be to You forever, Lord Jesus Christ, for the gift of Yourself through the sacrament of Your body and blood: the Eucharist.

Bible Verse

"Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him,
And we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.

John 14:23

Psalm 42

As a deer longs for flowing streams, so my soul longs for you, O God.

My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.

When shall I come and behold the face of God?

My tears have been my food day and night, while people say to me continually,

"Where is your God?"

These things I remember, as I pour out my soul:

How I went with the throng, and led them in procession to the house of God,

With glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving, a multitude keeping festival.

Why you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me?

Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God. Alleluia

From the First letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians 2:1-10

When I came to you, brothers, proclaiming the mystery of God, I did not come with sublimity of words or of wisdom. For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. I came to you in weakness and fear and much trembling, and my message and my proclamation were not with persuasive (words of) wisdom, but with a demonstration of spirit and power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God. Yet we do speak a wisdom to those who are mature, but not a wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age who are passing away. Rather, we speak God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God predetermined before the ages for our glory, and which none of the rulers of this age knew; for if they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But as it is written: "What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, and what has not entered the human heart, what God has prepared for those who love him," this God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit scrutinizes everything, even the depths of God.

From the Gospel according to John 14:21-27

Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him." Judas, not the Iscariot, said to him, "Master, (then) what happened that you will reveal yourself to us and not to the world?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; yet the word you hear is not mine but that of the Father who sent me. "I have told you this while I am with you. The Advocate, the holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name--he will teach you everything and remind you of all that (I) told you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.
