Feast of Saint Sharbel

Parable of the Weeds

Matthew 36: 36-43

36 Then he left the crowd and went into the house. His disciples came to him and said, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field."

37 He answered, "The one who sowed the good seed is the Son of Man.

38 The field is the world, and the good seed stands for the people of the kingdom. The weeds are the people of the evil one,

39 and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels.

40 "As the weeds are pulled up and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the age.

41 The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will weed out of his kingdom everything that causes sin and all who do evil.

42 They will throw them into the blazing furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears, let them hear.

O Lord, we ask you through the intercession of Saint Charbel, to give your Church men and women and holy priests, hermits and monks who sacrifice themselves for the salvation of the whole world. All glory, honor and praise to you, O Lord our God,
forever. AMEN

July Intentions

Pope Francis Intentions

We pray that, in social, economic and political situations of conflict, we may be courageous and passionate architects of dialogue and friendship.

Eparchy Intentions

Dear Lord, as we continue our lives with renewed hope and joy, let us remember to be kind to one another and to reach out to our brothers and sisters in need. Let us find in our hearts to always show mercy and love. We pray to you O Lord.

Remember O Lord those couples who are beginning their paths as husband and wife and those who have been married for years. May they always look to each other for love and acceptance while walking hand in hand towards their future. We pray to you O Lord.
