Thanksgiving Blessings

Our Lady of Lebanon's Thanksgiving celebration was nothing short of extraordinary—a full house filled with family and friends, all gathered in warmth and joy. It was also a special time to weave gratitude with heritage as we remembered Lebanon's Independence Day. The atmosphere was alive with laughter, heartfelt conversations, and shared moments that will be cherished for years to come.

We delighted in a feast of delicious food, lovingly prepared and catered by the ladies of the church, making every bite feel like a blessing. The evening was elevated by vibrant entertainment: The church gifted singers and band filled the room with soulful music, lifting spirits and bringing everyone together in harmony.

It was more than just a gathering—it was a true celebration of gratitude, unity, and love, as we were reminded of the countless blessings we share as one family in faith and community.

A special thank you goes to all who worked tirelessly to prepare this celebration. We are deeply grateful.
