Repentance of Zacchaeus the Tax Collector

Salvation of Zacchaeus

Luke 19: 1-10

1 Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through.

2 A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy.

3 He wanted to see who Jesus was, but because he was short he could not see over the crowd.

4 So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see him, since Jesus was coming that way.

5 When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today."

6 So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly.

7 All the people saw this and began to mutter, "He has gone to be the guest of a sinner."

8 But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount."

9 Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham."

10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

Thanksgiving Prayer

(From the Maronite Liturgy)

Gracious God and Father, how can we repay you for the salvation you have given us, or give you the glory you deserve?
In our weakness, we worship, praise and thank you, your Only Son, and your Holy Spirit, now and forever. AMEN

Pope Francis Intentions

The Church

Let us pray for the Church, that she may receive from the Holy Spirit the grace and strength to reform herself in the light of the Gospel.

Eparchy Intentions

Merciful and loving Lord, as many return home from their travels, let them remember their second homes, the Church. May they seek to renew their commitments to attending services and connecting with one another as a community. May we remember that when we gather together in your name, you are always present. We pray to you O Lord.

Remember O Lord our brothers and sisters around the world who continue to suffer adversity and hardships. May we continue to lend our help to those most in need. Let us find it in our hearts to be generous. We pray to you O Lord.
