Season of Glorious Resurrection
Holy Trinity Sunday
& Father Day
June 16, 2019

The Church today celebrates the fundamental mystery and truth on which everything in the Christian religion rests - the dogma of the Holy Trinity from whom all comes and whereby all baptized in His name must return: God the Father, Author of creation; God the Son, Author of redemption; and God the Holy Spirit, Author of our sanctification.

It is in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit that we begin and end every prayer and especially the divine liturgy of the Holy Mass, and all the other Sacraments, making our profession of faith in the Holy and Eternal Trinity and His indivisible Unity.

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Amen.

Pray For

Please call the parish office to inform us of an illness or hospitalization of a parishioner or family member. If you would like to add or remove your name or a relative's name from our prayer list, please contact us.

Bible Verse

Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit

Matthew 28:19

Psalm 145

I will extol you, my God and king; I will bless your name forever and ever.
Every day I will bless you; I will praise your name forever and ever.
Great is the LORD and worthy of much praise, whose grandeur is beyond understanding.
One generation praises your deeds to the next and proclaims your mighty works.
They speak of the splendor of your majestic glory, tell of your wonderful deeds.
They speak of the power of your awesome acts and recount your great deeds.
They celebrate your abounding goodness and joyfully sing of your justice.
The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in mercy.
The LORD is good to all, compassionate toward all your works.
All your works give you thanks, LORD and your faithful bless you.
They speak of the glory of your reign and tell of your mighty works,
Making known to the sons of men your mighty acts, the majestic glory of your rule.
Your reign is a reign for all ages, your dominion for all generations.
The LORD is trustworthy in all his words, and loving in all his works.
The LORD supports all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.
The eyes of all look hopefully to you; you give them their food in due season.
You open wide your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.
The LORD is just in all his ways, merciful in all his works.
The LORD is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth.
He fulfills the desire of those who fear him; he hears their cry and saves them.
The LORD watches over all who love him, but all the wicked he destroys. Alleluia

From the letter of Saint Paul to the Romans 11:25-36

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How inscrutable are his judgments and how unsearchable his ways! "For who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been his counselor?" "Or who has given him anything that he may be repaid?" For from him and through him and in him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.

From the Gospel according to Matthew 28:16-20

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."
