BIBLE VERSE

Everyone who has given up houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands for the sake of my name Will receive a hundred times more, and will inherit eternal life."

Matthew 19:29

Psalm 15

LORD, who may abide in your tent? Who may dwell on your holy mountain?
He who walks blamelessly and does justice;
who thinks the truth in his heart and slanders not with his tongue.
Who harms not his fellow man, nor takes up a reproach against his neighbor;
Who he honors those who fear the LORD and accepts no bribe against the innocent.
He who does these things will never be shaken. Alleluia

From the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans 8: 28 -38

We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those he predestined he called; and those he called he justified; and those he justified he glorified. What then shall we say to this? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him? Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who acquits us. Who will condemn? It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised, who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?

No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

From the Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew 19:27-29

Peter said to Jesus,

"We have given up everything and followed you.

What will there be for us?"

Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you that you who have followed me, in the new age, when the Son of Man is seated on his throne of glory,
will yourselves sit on twelve thrones,
judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

And everyone who has given up houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands for the sake of my name will receive a hundred times more,
and will inherit eternal life."
