Season of Great Lent
Healing of the Leper
February 18, 2018

Today's Gospel is about Jesus reaching out his hand and touching a leper. Leprosy is a contagious skin disease, and it was regarded as the ultimate impurity. Leprosy ate away the flesh and bones to the extent that eventually the sufferers were unrecognizable.

What Jesus did for the leper would have caused a chill to run down the spines of his congregation. Deeply moved with compassion, he stretched out his hand, touched the leper, and healed him.

Touching a leper was completely unacceptable, not only did Jesus risk contamination, he also "broke the law" by ignoring the boundary between the "mainstream" and those who no longer belonged. But Jesus didn't see a leper at all. He saw one of God's dear children in desperate need, and by touching the man, he released a torrent of healing love into his life.

BIBLE VERSE FOR THE WEEK

Moved with pity, Jesus stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "Be clean."

MARK 1:41

From the Letter of Saint Paul to Romans 6:12-23

Brothers and Sisters, Therefore, sin must not reign over your mortal bodies so that you obey their desires. And do not present the parts of your bodies to sin as weapons for wickedness, but present yourselves to God as raised from the dead to life and the parts of your bodies to God as weapons for righteousness. For sin is not to have any power over you, since you are not under the law but under grace.

What then? Shall we sin because we are not under the law but under grace? Of course not! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that, although you were once slaves of sin, you have become obedient from the heart to the pattern of teaching to which you were entrusted. Freed from sin, you have become servants of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your nature. For just as you presented the parts of your bodies as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness for lawlessness, so now present them as slaves to righteousness for sanctification. For when you were slaves of sin, you were free from righteousness. But what profit did you get then from the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

But now that you have been freed from sin and have become slaves of God, the benefit that you have leads to sanctification, and its end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. Praise be to God Always!

From the Gospel of our Lord according to Mark 1:35-45

The Evangelist Mark Said: Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed. Simon and those who were with him pursued him and on finding him said, "Everyone is looking for you." He told them, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come." So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.

A leper came to him (and kneeling down) begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean.

Then, warning him sternly, he dismissed him at once. But go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them." Instead he went out and began to talk freely, spreading the news. As a result, Jesus could no longer enter a town openly but stayed outside in lonely places. Yet the people still came to him from everywhere. This is the truth. Peace be with you.
